"Our mission is to support members in their creative endeavors and to promote the visual arts in the Canyon Lake area"

Hello Canyon Lake Art Guild artists!

Get ready; September 11th will start up our monthly meetings again at Tye Preston Memorial library. It will be wonderful to see you all again to share fellowship & our love of art!

Some "HOT" summer news...

- Hill Country Furnishings and our gallery wall space in Sattler, closed the end of July.

- WildFlour II, on the north side of the lake, on FM 306, opened in June and we now have their beautiful building as a new seasonal community display space. Tracy Fortune is the Community Display Coordinator of this venue and will have information on the seasonal space and sign up sheets at our September meeting. PLEASE, DO NOT CONTACT ANYONE EXCEPT TRACY CONCERNING THIS SPACE!! (Look for her newsletter below!) Thank you Tracy!

- The Greater New Braunfels Arts Council - GNBAC- has canceled the 2024 Fall into Art Festival that was scheduled for October. BUT... the City of NB has asked GNBAC & it's members to be a part of the monthly hosting of "FIRST FRIDAYS" in downtown New Braunfels!! The NBU parking lot will be available to the GNBAC members for FREE. Each organization will be allowed space to represent & present their organizations. The CLAG board will be working on some sort of format for you all to have a chance to be a part of these events to sell your art and represent our art guild! More information from Lisa Jarmen, our GNBAC liaison, as it develops!!.

GNBAC is currently updating their website. (GNBAC.org) When it's finished it's full of information about the many organizations involved and events on their calendar. This organization represents the many artisan organizations of theater, dance and fine arts in the New Braunfels & surrounding areas. Thank you Lisa Jarmin for representing our guild as a board member with the GNBAC.

The CLAG children's book was published and presented at a reception in June. The "Honey Bee and Her Backyard Friends" book is adorable! Books are available for $20 - contact Diane Parker for information . The book committee did a fabulous job on this project! Thank you ladies!

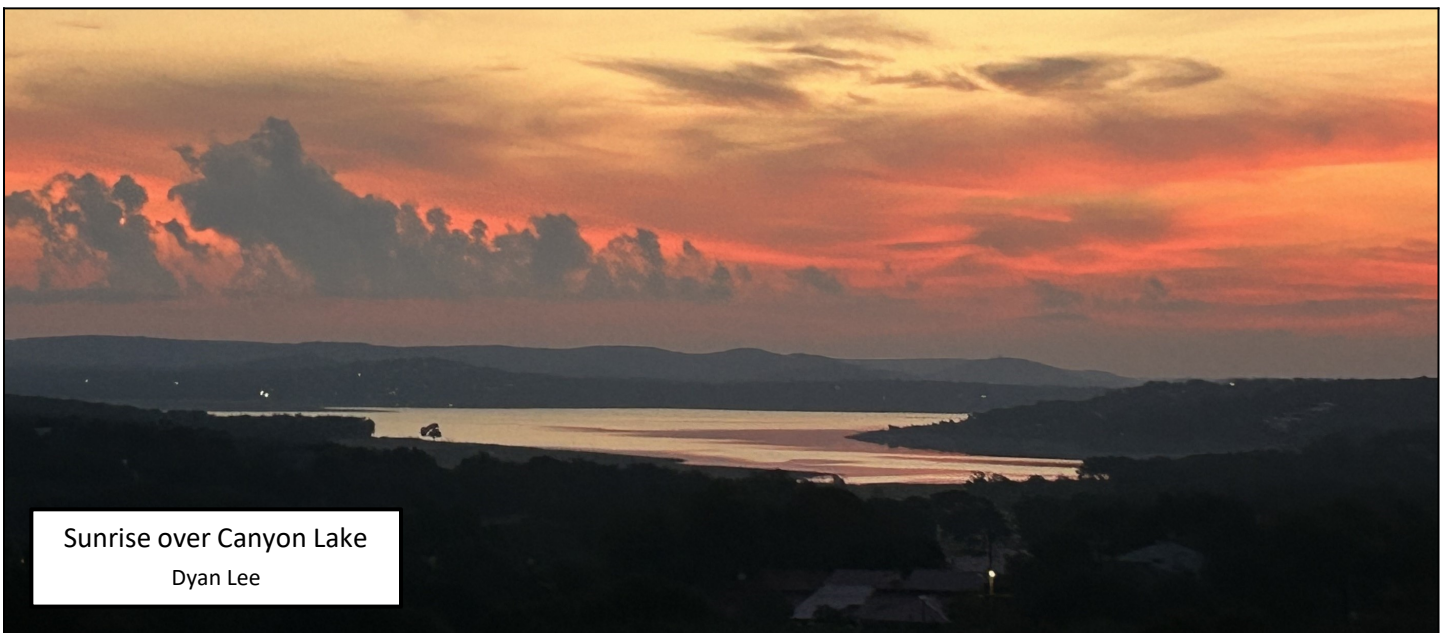

Please remember to bring your painted wooden plates or plaques to the September meeting. This is our annual fundraiser project and money from the sales will go towards our scholarship, meeting space and other general needs to operate our guild. Also needed are volunteers for our many committee and chair positions to assist the guild! Please reach out to any board member if you would like to help on our call committee, social media, membership, scholarship, community displays, art shows, fund raising or sitting on the executive board! CLAG has many tasks to do and needs your help!

I hope to see your smiling faces in September! May we have a Blessed fall season! Until then...

Keep coloring our world!

CLAG's New Artwork Exhibition Space

Wildflour North

Exciting news! Canyon Lake Art Guild artists have the opportunity to brighten the walls of a spacious new restaurant. Wildflour North Artisan Bakery & Grill (formerly Roberts on the Lake) recently opened. It is located at 20884 FM 306, Canyon Lake, a bit west of Brookshire Brothers. The first artworks went up in July and already six paintings have sold.

Want to take part? Here are some details.

- the art on display will be switched out four times per year. (Oct, Jan, April and July)
- artwork should have a Hill Country flair (local landscapes, flowers, plants, wild life, ranch animals, music, etc.)
- each artist may bring 3-4 artworks
- all artworks should be professional in appearance and be wired appropriately for hanging (sawtooth hangers are not acceptable)
- artwork should have name/identification on the back if not on front
- if your artwork sells, you need to replace the sold piece
- the venue does not take a commission
- sign up at CLAG meetings (the sign up sheet will be at the Sept meeting)
- bring artwork to the restaurant and complete labels for each artwork

The ARTIST DEMO for our September meeting will be our very talented member, Ellyn Hickey. Ellyn has illustrated several books and has won awards for her art. Having lived by the ocean most of her life; Rhode Island, Santa Barbara and Maui; the colors and subjects of her art are influenced by these locations. Ellyn will share how she draws, paints and colors portraits, animals, flowers, grandmother's, spaceships and mermaids. Wow!! I hope you will join us for this fun and exciting demonstration.

Update on the children's book

Our book, Honey B and Her Backyard Friends, was published and we held a reception at the library on June 15th to celebrate with the children and their families. Ellyn Hickey, who wrote the story, read the book to the children and afterwards each of them received a book. The little artists ranging in ages 5 to 11 years were so proud to see their very own artworks printed in a real book. Some of you may have read about it in the Herald-Zeitung news.

We served decorated bee cookies made by Nicole Parker and Sharon Alexander. The members who worked on the book committee deserve a special thanks for all their hard work but I'm sure they would agree that the gratitude of the parents and children was reward in itself. We had a wonderful time in creating the book and celebrating with the reception.

Books are available online at lulu bookstore. Then just type in the title mentioned above. The price is $20 and CLAG makes about $5 of that.

Community Display

Thanks to participating CLAG artists for the current showing at the TPML. Kudos for the efforts for the walls and case displays. The current show has been well received by public and library staff.

The New Braunfels Art League "Piece by Piece" show in July won me a Red Ribbon and $125.00!! The macabre sculpture of stone, wood, brass and sculpted clay entitled "A French Revolution" was a fun project and winning was an unexpected thrill! Thank you NBAL!

Brookshire once again bagged me grocery money for 3 pieces sold during July and August. Thanks to Brookshire for their gracious support.

Thinking ahead to the upcoming 4th quarter display at TPML beginning October 8th...I would like to invite any/all CLAG artists to bring LARGE (30 X 36" UP TO 4' X 5') paintings ..I have found that it is difficult to find venues that can accommodate large pieces. It would also bring a festive feeling to the Holiday Season?? Opinions will be welcomed at the September 11th meeting. Be sure to sign up at that meeting for the October 8th thru January 8th show. Cases will be available for sign-ups also.

Looking forward to greeting CLAG members after the long hot summer!

Misty Brever and Carmon Brittain have pieces on display at Prosperity Bank. You may sign up for the 4th quarter and beyond at our monthly meetings. Congratulations to those who have sold their work! Please replace any artwork that you sell or need to move. Let's keep the walls full of color!

St. Francis by the Lake in Canyon Lake

The church is currently planning their second annual Fall Fair and Pet Blessing. This PAWS-itivly fun community outreach event is perfect for kids and adults of all ages, animal lovers everywhere, and anyone who loves fall, food, and crafts!

The church is looking for vendors to fill their halls and parking lot to add to the experience for all of the attendees. Last year was our first year and we had about 200 people (and their four legged friends) attend. We are hoping to multiply that and grow the event.

The Festival is Saturday, October 12th from 10:00-2:00 at St. Francis by the Lake in Canyon Lake. For the fair, you could sell different art pieces (ideally animal themed), share about the Guild with people at your booth, advertise your offerings, do live painting, etc.

If interested, please contact Maria Slaughter, event planner, at 210-577-8793 or mariaslaughter@lilalaneevents.com.

HAZELNUT (OR ALMOND) AND CHOCOLATE CAKE

- 5 oz Semi-sweet chocolate-chopped fine
- 1/2 c Sugar
- 1/2 c Unsalted Butter, softened
- 4 X-tra Large eggs, seperated
- 1 c Ground Hazelnuts or Almonds
- 1 c Plain Breadcrumbs
- The zest of 2 Large Navel Oranges
- 2 T Orange marmalade
- 1/4 c Coarsely Chopped nuts (Hazelnuts or Almonds)
- For the Icing:
 - 5 oz Semi-sweet chocolate-chopped fine
 - 1/4 c Cold butter, cubed

Preheat oven to 350. Butter a 9" round x 2" high cake pan and line the base with parchment paper.

Melt the chocolate, in a double boiler (bain-marie) and set aside.

In a the bowl of a stand mixer, beat the butter and sugar together until light and fluffy. Gradually add the egg yolks, one at a time, beating well inbetween additions, then beat well for 2 minutes. (The mixture may curdle slightly). Beat in the melted chocolate, then the ground nuts, breadcrumbs and orange zest.

In another bowl, whisk the egg whites until stiff. Fold into the chocolate mixture. Transfer to the cake pan. Bake for 40-45 minutes, until set. Test with toothpick until it comes out clean. Remove from the oven, cover with a damp dish towel for 5 minutes. Remove the dish towel and transfer to cooling rack, until completely cool. Remove the cake from the pan, remove the parchment paper from under the cake. Spread the cake with the marmalade, staying 1/2" from the edge of the cake. To make the icing, place the chocolate and cold butter in a heatproof bowl over simmering water, making sure that the bottom of the bowl does NOT touch the simmering water (bain-marie) and stir until smooth and thickens. Pour the icing over the marmalade on the cake, and gently spread the icing over the cake to make sure it covers the top and sides of the cake. Sprinkle the chopped nuts to decorate the top of the cake.
